

Not in favor of any national telephone privacy law that would preempt Indiana's existing telephone privacy law. Under Indiana's new telephone privacy law I now receive 90% less unwanted telephone solicitations than I did before requesting to be removed from call lists. I'd like to keep it this way, not lower standards.